ROOSEVELT STILL ASKS
FOR CUBAN RECIPROCITY

Washington, June 2.—Senators Proctor, Nelson, Gamble and Kittredge called at the White House this forenoon, on invitation, and had a conference with the President in order to discuss pending legislation. The subjects discussed were the Cuban reciprocity bill and the prospects for canal legislation at this session. The object of the conference was to urge upon the Senators the necessity for unanimity of action and the real necessity for legislation on these subjects at this session.

As to the canal bill, it is known that the President would reluctantly accept the responsibility imposed by the Spooner amendment of selecting a route, but he would much prefer that Congress itself select the route. The President sent for a number of Senators who have been known to be opposed to granting concessions to Cuba on the ground that it will not favor the interests of the best sugar of the country. To the Senators he expressed the hope that the Republicans would act together. The President again assured the Republicans that in urging action on reciprocity he would carry out the announcement of President McKinley uttered in his last speech with such public approval throughout the country; also promises that had been made concerning concessions to Cuba.

The President indicated that the adoption of the Platt amendment made it obligatory upon the United States to treat Cuba differently from other nations. In a casual remark he said that even this showed that it would have been better to allow Cuba to be absolutely independent, as was Mexico. He told these Republican Senators that the party ought not to be divided on tariff issues as it was entering the campaign, and he expressed the hope that a Cuban bill would be passed without the aid of Democratic votes.

KITCHENER IS THANKED

London, June 6.—The War Office has sent communications to Lord Kitchener on the energy, skill and patience with which he conducted the long campaign in South Africa and has asked him to communicate to the troops the Government's profound sense of their spirit of endurance, bravery and discipline, and also of their humanity, shown throughout the trying period. Lord Kitchener replied in behalf of the army in South Africa, tendering his sincere thanks for the congratulations of the Government, which he was sure the troops would receive with great satisfaction.

KING EDWARD IN COLLISION.

London, June 2.—King Edward narrowly escaped what might have been a serious accident this morning. His Majesty was driving to St. James' palace when a cab collided with his carriage. The cab horse fell and lay struggling under the royal vehicle. The King alighted and stood upon the pavement until matters were righted.

Robert Little, editor of the North China News, which is published at Shanghai, is in New York. He is one of the best posted men in the Far East on Chinese affairs.

TEAMSTERS OF CHICAGO
WIN THEIR FIGHT

Chicago, June 5.—The teamsters' strike was settled at 4:15 this Wednesday morning. The men gain recognition of the union. The scale agreed upon averages 2 cents less than the men demanded. All pickets will be withdrawn at once and the men will return to work this morning.

The men secured the concessions in regard to hours of labor that were originally demanded. Chicago, June 4.—Driven by men covered with dust and blood, many of them barely able from exhaustion to hold the reins in their hands, thirty-six meat wagons entered the main gate of the Union Stock Yards tonight amid a shower of stones, bricks, bottles and sticks.

The wagons, guarded by five police officers, were crowded with men and omnibuses crowded to the fullest capacity with policemen, were on the return from a delivery of supplies to downtown provision houses after one of the fiercest days in the strike of the beef packers' teamsters. Many of the drivers, officers as the packing houses, were cut and bruised from head to foot. The police were in even worse condition. The wagon drivers had been working from 5 o'clock in the morning, and their progress from the stock yards to the business district and back again had been a continuous battle with mobs of strike sympathizers.

At the very entrance to the stock yards tonight, after all seeming danger had passed, George June, an employee of the Anglo-American Packing Company, was struck with a baseball bat and kicked from his wagon seat. He was picked up unconscious, and it is believed he may die. Many others were struck at the same time by a shower of stones, but the police were too worn out to offer resistance. More than a dozen battles were fought during the day between the rioters and the police, and the hospitals tonight are overcrowded with injured. The fiercest battle of the day took place this afternoon at Sixteenth street and Michigan avenue. The rioters stood on the viaduct and hurled rocks at the meat wagons passing underneath. The mob was the most formidable in numbers and its daring of any of the crowds that gathered during the day. Before this mob could be dispersed the police were compelled to use revolvers. More than fifty shot were fired, bullets passing over the heads of the crowd, which finally became frightened and scattered, but not until many of the rioters and policemen were injured.

Lipton Will Challenge Again.

London, June 5.—The Exchange Telegraph Company today gave out a yachting announcement, previously made by the Associated Press, which said that Sir Thomas Lipton has decided to challenge for the America's cup in 1903 with a yacht to be built by the company. The Exchange Telegraph Company adds the yacht is designed by Fife, but, as a matter of fact, Watson and Fife collaborated in the design.

To Be Consecrated in San Diego.

San Diego, June 2.—The consecration of the Rev. J. H. Restarick as Bishop of Honolulu is to take place in his own church, St. Paul's, of this city on the first or second Sunday in July. Mr. Restarick will leave soon after the consecration for his new field of work in Hawaii.

STACKABLE THE MAN

HE KEPT SNAKES
OUT OF HAWAII

Collector of Customs First Brought
Matter to the Attention of Authorities at Washington--Waterfront Discussion.

A somewhat heated discussion took place in a well known captain's resort on the waterfront this morning as to whom belonged the credit of keeping snakes out of the Paradise of the Pacific. It was the opinion of numerous skippers and waterfronters that the credit belonged in Washington.

The Territory of Hawaii deserves all that is coming in the way of credit for defending itself from poisonous reptiles, and that Collector of Customs E. R. Stackable is the man who first brought the matter before the Washington authorities, is shown by the following communication received by Collector Stackable in the last mail from Washington:

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, May 27, 1902
Division of Customs.

Sir:—Referring to your letter of the 15th of February last, in which you suggest that measures be adopted to prevent the landing of snakes at any port in the Hawaiian Islands from foreign ports, or from the continental ports of the United States, or from any port in our insular possessions, I have to state that this Department has consulted with the Secretary of Agriculture in the matter and I enclose, for your information and guidance, a copy of a circular issued by his Department under date of the 22d inst., requiring on and after July 1, 1902, and until further notice, permits for reptiles brought into the Territory of Hawaii, and prohibiting the issuance of permits for poisonous snakes of any kind.

Respectfully,
O. L. SPAULDING,
Assistant Secretary.

The copy of the circular referred to and enclosed with the above letter, is as follows:
Importation of reptiles into Hawaii—U. S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Secretary, Washington, D. C., May 22, 1902.

Under the provisions of Section 1 of the Act of Congress approved May 25, 1900, entitled "An Act to enlarge the powers of the Department of Agriculture, prohibit the transportation by interstate commerce of game killed in violation of local laws, and for other purposes," the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to regulate the introduction of birds and animals in localities where they have not heretofore existed, and to make and publish all needed rules and regulations for carrying out the purposes of the act.

In accordance with the authority thus conferred, and for the purpose of preventing the introduction of noxious reptiles into the Territory of Hawaii, the order issued under date of September 13, 1900, extending the list of foreign animals and birds which may be imported without permits (Circular No. 30, Biological Survey) is hereby amended, so that on and after July 1, 1902, and until further notice, permits will be required for the entry of reptiles at all ports of the Hawaiian Islands. Such permits will be issued by the special inspector of this Department in Honolulu in the same form and subject to the same regulations as those now issued for mammals and birds. But no permits will be issued for the entry of poisonous snakes of any kind. All applications for permits to import reptiles into Hawaii should be addressed to the Special Inspector of Foreign Animals and Birds, Bishop Museum, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Under the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, under date of June 28, 1900 (Circular No. 101, Division of Customs), persons who have not already secured permits will be allowed a reasonable time in which to secure them after the arrival of the shipment at the port of entry. In case the application for entry is not granted, or the required permit is not obtained in due time, the reptiles will be immediately exported or destroyed at the expense of the owner or agent.

OPHTHALMIA CONTAGIOUS.

New York, June 6.—Prevalence of ophthalmia in the public schools to such an extent as to move the Board of Health in declaring the disease contagious, has been discussed by the New York Academy of Medicine. One of the speakers said he had not only observed many cases growing out of the use of public baths, but that many of them were serious. He argued in favor of the Board of Health taking drastic action whenever inspection brought to light a case of ophthalmia or trachoma and declared that the inspectors should not satisfy themselves with merely removing the child, but should visit the family and locate the seat of original infection.

WILL ARREST LYNCH.

London, June 6.—According to a news agency, Colonel Arthur Lynch, who fought with the Boers in South Africa, was elected in November last to represent Galway in the House of Commons, and who, it was announced last night, in a dispatch to the Associated Press from Paris, had decided to go to London early next week and attempt to take his seat in the House. He will not be allowed to carry out his intention. He will be arrested, it is said, on the charge of treason immediately after landing in England. A sharp watch is being kept for Colonel Lynch and if he reaches Westminster it will be by stratagem.

POPE LEO AND TAFT
DISCUSS PHILIPPINES

Rome, June 5.—The Pope today received Judge Taft, Civil Governor of the Philippines; Bishop Thomas O'Gorman of Sioux Falls, S. D.; Judge Smith and Major Porter of the judge advocate's department at Washington. Judge Taft presented to his Holiness a letter from President Roosevelt and a box containing President Roosevelt's literary works. The Pope expressed his thanks for Mr. Roosevelt's friendly greetings, promised to study the difficult Philippine question, and said he hoped for results.

The Pontiff also asked Judge Taft to thank President Roosevelt for his gift. Bishop O'Gorman acted as interpreter and Major Porter read the President's letter. The audience lasted forty minutes.

Explained by Taft.
While talking with the Pope, Governor Taft reviewed in a summary way the questions in the Philippines which require settlement. He pointed out that the holiness of the readjustment of the relations of church and state in the islands was not an indication of hostility of the United States to the Catholic church, but declared that such a readjustment was merely a necessity under the American Constitution. Government and the freedom of the Roman Catholic church in the United States, and cited these conditions as an assurance that the Vatican had nothing to fear from the extension of the authority of the United States over the Philippine Islands.

Assurances of Pope.
Replying to Judge Taft, the Pontiff expressed the greatest pride in the Roman Catholic church in the United States and intense interest in the republic. He earnestly desired to help the American administration of the Philippines in every possible way, and he assured Governor Taft that the Vatican would approach all questions relating to the broadest and most conciliatory spirit. The Pope said also that matters of detail in connection with the questions to be decided would be referred to a committee of Cardinals, who they would be considered at length, and that all the issues would be treated with the sole aim of reaching a settlement satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Pontiff in Good Health.
The Pope appeared to be in excellent health during his interview with Governor Taft and was in a vivacious humor. He returned pleasantly to Archbishop Ireland in the way he had to say concerning the Roman Catholic church in the United States.
Judge Taft subsequently met Cardinal Rampolla, the Papal Secretary of State, and opened the discussion of Philippine matters.
